Responding Party

NOTICE OF MOTION FOR INTERLOCUTORY SUSPENSION OR RESTRICTION

TO THE RESPONDING PARTY:

THE LAW SOCIETY OF UPPER CANADA brings a motion under s. 49.27(1) of the Law Society Act, RSO 1990, c. L. 8, seeking to suspend and/or restrict the Responding Party's licence on the basis that there are reasonable grounds for believing that there is a significant risk of harm to members of the public, or to the public interest in the administration of justice, if the order is not made and that making the order is likely to reduce the risk.

The order requested, the grounds for the motion and the documentary evidence the Law Society will rely on at the hearing of the motion are set out below.

This Notice of Motion is served together with an Information Sheet that sets out the next steps in the proceeding.

The motion is for:

1. An interlocutory order pursuant to s. 49.27 of the Law Society Act suspending the Responding Party's licence to practice law;
2. An order the Affidavit of Renae Oliphant (Non-Public) sworn March 24, 2017 be received in the absence of the public, pursuant to rule 18 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Law Society Tribunal (Hearing Division);
3. If required, an order abridging the time period for service and/or dispensing with service; and
4. Such further and other relief as counsel may request and the Hearing Division may grant.

The grounds for the motion are:

1. The Law Society has received evidence that raises serious concerns about the Responding Party's competence and/or capacity to practice law;
2. In representing clients in a number of litigation matters, the Responding Party has repeatedly relied on unsupported theories and arguments that misunderstand the nature of the Canadian legal system and basic principles of law;
3. The Responding Party's behaviour is causing harm to the administration of justice and to multiple parties involved in the litigation;
4. An order under rule 18 is required to avoid contributing to the disclosure of information that is protected by the Child and Family Services Act;
5. Rules 3, 10, 13, 18, and 21 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Law Society Tribunal (Hearing Division);
6. Section 49.27 of the Law Society Act, RSO 1990, c. L.8;
7. Section 45(8) of the Child and Family Services Act, RSO 1990, c. C.11; and
8. Such further and other grounds as counsel may provide and the Hearing Division may accept.

The Law Society will rely on the following documentary evidence at the hearing of the motion:

1. The Affidavit of Renae Oliphant (Public) sworn March 24, 2017;
2. The Affidavit of Renae Oliphant (Non-Public) sworn March 24, 2017; and
3. Such further and other evidence as counsel may provide and the Hearing Division may receive.
